Khang Dien House is considered one of the reputable residential property developers in Ho Chi Minh City. The company is well known for its low-rise housing projects, townhouses, villas, and urban residential areas. Compared to many developers, KDH is recognized for maintaining relatively healthy financial conditions and a stable project development strategy.

The Classia, Verosa Park, Safira, and Privia have made KDH the go-to choice for affluent homebuyers and institutional investors who prioritize legal safety and high-quality living spaces in the country's economic hub.

Financial performance

During the 2020–2025 period, the company’s business performance experienced significant fluctuations, with profitability showing a declining trend before a slight recovery in 2025. Revenue growth was strong at 61.09% in 2020 but declined by 17.51% in 2021, then recovered to 28.38% in 2022 before dropping sharply by 31.55% in 2023. The 2024–2025 period showed positive signals as revenue growth rebounded to 57.04% and 41.86%, respectively. Net profit after tax remained above VND 1 trillion during 2020–2022 but fell to VND 729,500 million in 2023 before recovering to VND 1,626,638 million in 2025. In addition, ROEA and ROAA declined from 14.57% and 8.49% in 2020 to 5.51% and 3.23% in 2025, reflecting weaker efficiency in the use of equity and assets. EPS also decreased from VND 2,120 to VND 989, indicating that the company’s ability to generate returns for shareholders remained under pressure despite signs of improvement.

Medium and long-term prospectus

Expansion of Residential Projects

KDH continues to develop residential and urban projects in strategic areas of Ho Chi Minh City, supporting long-term revenue growth and market presence.

Strong Legal Project Portfolio

The company focuses on projects with relatively clear legal status, helping reduce development risks and improve project implementation efficiency.

Sustainable Growth Strategy

KDH prioritizes conservative financial management, stable cash flow, and sustainable project development, which may strengthen its long-term competitiveness in Vietnam’s property market.

TIME HORIZON

SHORT TO MEDIUM TO LONG-TERM INVESTMENT HORIZON

The reason is that residential real estate projects require time for development, construction, and handovers to fully contribute to earnings

4 TO 6 YEARS

IKDH’s conservative financial strategy and stable project pipeline may support more sustainable long-term growth compared to higher-risk property developers.

RISK TOLERANCE

SUITABLE FOR INVESTORS WITH A MEDIUM RISK TOLERANCE

KDH is suitable for investors with a medium risk tolerance. Although the real estate industry faces cyclical risks and legal challenges, KDH’s lower leverage and more cautious expansion strategy help reduce financial pressure compared to highly leveraged developers.
